FALL INTO MUSIC AND CULTURE AT GLENDALÉ MAIN LIBRARY THIS AUTUMN

Glendale, Ariz. —A variety of top-quality, free musical performances are featured at the Glendale Main Library during the fall season, including Live at the Library, the Main Library Coffeehouse, and the Acoustic Jam Session.

Live at the Library, one of the West Valley's most popular monthly musical series, is held on the fourth Thursday of the month at 6:30 p.m. in the library's auditorium. Upcoming performers include:

- Sept. 27: Phoenix Chamber Brass - Comprised of some of the finest musicians from across the country, Phoenix Chamber Brass members hold many prestigious awards and accolades and perform at international venues large and small. They will present a widely diverse repertoire of music, attempting to revolutionize the brass quintet genre. This program is made possible by the Glendale Community College Performing Arts Department.
- Oct. 25: Skunk Creek Railroad - A musical cooperative serving up folk, blues, reggae and what has been called Americana. Whatever you call it, it's an always-fun mixture of favorites, provocative arrangements of oldies and the occasional band composition. Skunk Creek Railroad has volunteered their time and services to make this performance possible.
- Nov. 1: GCC Guitar Ensembles - Directed by guitarist Chuck Hulihan, the guitar program at Glendale Community College is considered among the best junior college training programs in the nation. This concert will feature an eclectic mix of music from throughout the centuries and across the globe. This performance is made possible by the Glendale Community College Performing Arts Department.
- Dec. 6: Grace Lutheran Handbell Choir - This uniquely talented group will offer favorite holiday tunes rung with multi-sized brass bells. Grace Lutheran Handbell Choir has volunteered their time and services to make this performance possible.

MUSIC AT THE LIBRARY

Additional musical offerings at the Glendale Main Library include the Glendale Coffeehouse and the Acoustic Jam Session.

Acoustic music lovers are welcome to the Main Library Coffeehouse in the auditorium at 6:30 p.m. on the third Thursday of the month. The Coffeehouse features two sets of area musicians. Upcoming performances include:

- Oct. 18: Cinder Mountain - Bluegrass
- Nov. 15: Storytelling enthusiasts all around the globe will share their talents in concerts held in cities and towns to celebrate the art of storytelling. Locally, TELLABRATION!™ brings together each area's most celebrated storytellers to delight, captivate, and mesmerize audiences with their tales. Join us for an evening of Arizona stories told by "The West Side Tellers."
- Dec. 20: Members of the Glendale Public Library's Acoustic Jam Session take the stage to entertain the audience with holiday favorites.

The Acoustic Jam Session is an opportunity for musicians to bring their own acoustic instruments and play round-robin style with fellow musicians. The jam sessions are held on the last Wednesday of the month at 6:00 p.m. in the large meeting room at Glendale Main Library. An audience is welcome. Upcoming dates are Sept. 26, Oct. 31, Nov. 28 and Dec.26.
